

The new hairstyle

Carla asked her good friend about her new hairstyle: 'Hey, Lily, what do you think of my new hairstyle? Does it make my face look ugly?'

Lily replied: 'No, of course not.'

Carla seemed to be so happy and said: 'Is it true?'

Lily looked at Carla and tried to explain to her: 'Well, Carla, there isn't any relationship between your new hairstyle and your ugly face.'

The accident

Mr and Mrs Chan were on the plane to Europe. Suddenly, Mrs Chan remembered something serious and screamed out loudly, 'Oh, my darling! I forgot to turn off the heater before leaving home, our house must be on fire now!'

Mr Chan looked calm and answered: 'Don't worry! I just want to tell you that I forgot to turn off the water-tap before leaving the toilet of our house.'

The clever patient

Doctor Lau works in a psychiatric hospital and he asked his patient one day, 'Do you know what will happen to you if I cut one of your ears?'

The patient responded quickly, 'Then I will not hear well.'

Doctor Lau continued, 'Yes, but what if I cut the other ear of yours?'

The patient answered, 'Then I will not see.'

Doctor Lau looked at the patient strangely and asked, 'May I know why?'

The clever patient said, 'Oh, if I have no ears, my glasses will fall down.'
